Conference Meeting Planners

Plan an event, meeting or convention in Southern West Virginia and you will always find great facilities and activities for your attendees to enjoy.

Our nine-county region offers over 2,700 rooms in a variety of accommodations and meeting and conference facilities that can accommodate small forums or a large gathering consisting of 1200 attendees. The Southern West Virginia Convention and Visitors Bureau can provide assistance in planning your meeting. Our services include site facility selection and coordination, area brochure mailings, local tour information, and visitor center information displayed at your meeting or conference. We strive to make your planning process easy.

In addition to an abundance of quality accommodations and a variety of meeting & conference facilities, Southern WV is known as the home of "America's Best Whitewater" and is famous for unparalleled outdoor adventure activities. Rafting, kayaking and mountain biking are just a few of our adventure opportunities. In addition to these more extreme sports, enjoy fabulous golf, fishing, snow skiing, live theatre, historic sites and artisan centers.

Surrounding airports include Raleigh County Memorial Airport in Beckley, Greenbrier Valley Airport in Lewisburg, Mercer County Airport and neighboring Yeager Airport in Charleston.
