WELCOME TO Southern West Virginia

Welcome to Southern West Virginia—home to some of the most beautiful scenery, amazing restaurants, historical sites and awe-inspiring attractions. Southern West Virginia is an adventurer's paradise with hundreds of miles of hiking trails, a plethora of state parks, a conveniently located ski resort and some of the best rock climbing and whitewater on the East Coast!

Cathedral Falls
Fayette County

To help you navigate Southern West Virginia, we've organized everything by county. Each one is color coded for clarity, as are restaurants and attractions. Trip planning has never been easier!

Made up of nine unique counties, each area has its own distinct feeling and flavor. With a waterpark, mini-golf and an indoor climbing gym—Raleigh County has something for everyone in your family. If mouth-watering food and craft brews are more up your alley, check out Fayetteville in Fayette County—it's a foodie's paradise! If you're looking for a relaxing day on the lake, then Summersville Lake in Nicholas County is the place for you. Maybe you want a little adrenaline rush on your vacation? Then hit the Hatfield-McCoy Trails in Wyoming County.

Get a taste of the area's rich railroad history while visiting Hinton in Summers County or visit the quilt trail in Monroe County. Take advantage of three state parks in one area in Mercer County, enjoy the peaceful solitude in McDowell County or stroll down a historic main street in Greenbrier County.

Not only do we have nine counties to explore, but seasons here are truly extraordinary. With each season comes something new to discover in Southern West Virginia. Spring brings blooming flowers, including our state flower, the rhododendron. Look forward to an adventurous summer—hit the New or Gauley rivers for whitewater rafting or take a rock climbing trip. Fall dazzles us with vibrant foliage and weather perfect for hiking. And in winter, our region becomes a snow covered wonderland perfect for skiing, snowboarding or cozying up in a cabin next to the fire. No matter what time of year you visit, you'll find something wonderful to do.

Southern West Virginia is home to three areas managed by the National Park Service. The Bluestone National Scenic River, the Gauley River National Recreation Area and the New River Gorge National River all call Southern West Virginia home. These three areas make up over 100,000 acres of river valley managed by the National Park Service—and there's nowhere else in America with national parks in such close proximity! During your visit, make sure you see at least one of these beautiful areas.

Did you fall in love in Southern West Virginia? Or maybe you're looking to come home to tie the knot? Whether you're looking for a romantic and scenic destination wedding or you have ties to the region, you'll find the perfect place to say "I do" in Southern West Virginia. From breathtaking overlooks for the ceremony, one-of-a-kind reception venues and unique cuisine for catering, we can help you plan a wedding that will have all your guests talking for years to come.

Decades of Outdoor Adventure

Southern West Virginia's National Parks, Bridge Day Celebrate Major Milestones

Southern West Virginia is known for its scenic beauty and untouched wilderness. With three National Parks, world-class whitewater and one of the largest extreme sports events in the world, Southern West Virginia has been an outdoor adventurers' oasis for years.

Both the state's National Parks and Bridge Day are celebrating some major milestones—marking decades of outdoor adventure in the Mountain State.

CHECK OUT VISITWV.COM/NATIONALPARKS
FOR MORE INFORMATION.

30 YEARS

THE BLUESTONE NATIONAL SCENIC RIVER

The Bluestone National Scenic River protects a 10.5-mile section of the Bluestone River and was created in 1988 under the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act.

THE GAULEY RIVER NATIONAL RECREATION AREA

The Gauley River is known for its roaring whitewater rapids that adventurers from all over the world travel to experience. This park, designated in 1988, protects 25 miles of the Gauley River and six miles of its tributary, the Meadow River.

40 YEARS

THE NEW RIVER GORGE NATIONAL RIVER

The New River is the oldest river on the continent and the section that runs through Southern West Virginia was declared a national river in 1948. The park encompasses over 70,000 acres of land and 53 miles of river.

BRIDGE DAY

Bridge Day is West Virginia's largest single-day festival and one of the largest extreme sports events in the world and 2019 marks the 40th anniversary of Southern West Virginia's biggest event! For 40 years, the New River Gorge Bridge has closed to vehicle traffic and thousands of spectators walk across the bridge to watch BASE jumpers fly 876 feet into the Gorge below and rappellers ascend and descend from the catwalk.

● WHITEWATER RAFTING IN SOUTHERN WEST VIRGINIA

In 1968, the Dragan brothers began Wildwater Unlimited in Thurmond, WV, sparking the birth of an industry and a vital part of West Virginia's tourism economy. These days, thousands of people travel to the area every year to take on some of the best whitewater on the East Coast!

THE HEART OF SOUTHERN WV: Raleigh County

In the heart of Southern West Virginia, Raleigh County has something for everyone. From skiing, a waterpark, an indoor climbing gym and Lake Stephens, Raleigh County is perfect for an outdoor adventure. Add in best-in-class dining and Tamarack, a hub for the arts and local goods, Raleigh County is a can't-miss destination.

Fun for Everyone in Raleigh County

Whether you're an adventure seeker or looking for a relaxing weekend, Raleigh County has something for everyone in your family.

And you don't have to venture too far off the highway to get there! Rock climbing, chocolate treats and mini-golf all in one spot? The Outside-In Climbing Gym in Beckley definitely won't disappoint. Round out your day with a stop at Lake Stephens and don't forget your swimsuit! With a splash pad, aqua park and swimming area, Lake Stephens is the perfect place to cool off from the summer heat.

When the snow flurries start to fly, West Virginia turns into a winter wonderland and it's the perfect time to head to Winterplace Ski Resort in Ghent. Over 90 acres of skiable terrain and the state's largest ski tubing park, Winterplace is Southern West Virginia's premier winter resort.

Finally, head over to the Youth Museum in Beckley to learn more about the history of the area. The main gallery features three exhibits that change throughout the year along with a planetarium. Just behind the museum stands the Mountain Homestead—a recreated Appalachian frontier settlement. Take a step back in time and tour the one-room schoolhouse, the blacksmith shop and general store!

Exhibition Coal Mine: A Look Back in Time

WEST VIRGINIA IS PROUD OF ITS COAL MINING HISTORY and there is no better place to appreciate this heritage than at the Exhibition Coal Mine in Beckley.

Open seasonally from April through October, visitors can take a trip through the once operational coal mine. Guests hop into an old "man trip" and are toured through the underground mine by a veteran miner who provides first-hand experiences of what life was like as a West Virginia coal miner. The tour guide will stop the car at various spots throughout the tour to explain more about the mining methods and equipment once used in the mine. Don't forget your jacket—the underground mine doesn't get warmer than 58 degrees!

Appalachian Coal Town Christmas
Beckley

After emerging from the mine, visitors can tour the on-site coal camp buildings. The Coal Company House, Superintendent's Home, Pemberton Coal Camp Church and the Helen Coal Camp School give visitors a look into what life was like in an early 20th century mining community.

If you're in the area around Christmas time, be sure to stop by the Exhibition Coal Mine's Appalachian Coal Town Christmas event. Enjoy wagon rides, caroling and Christmas crafts. The Coal Mine buildings are also decorated for the season and can be enjoyed throughout the month of December. 🇺🇸

off-road park

Burning Rock Off Road Park is the perfect alternative to your everyday beaten path. The park, located just 3.5 miles from the town of Sophia, is situated on 10,000 acres and offers over 100 miles of trails ranging from the "family friendly" Tams Loop to the "winch recommended, enter at your own risk" favorite – The Amazon. There are trails for every type of bike, atv, utv or Jeep .

The 70 acre trailhead is only 15 minutes from Beckley and features a general store, pavilion, campground, rustic cabins, RV hookups, Glamp and Platform tents, showers, and restroom facilities.

You can contact Burning Rock at 304-683-9242 or info@burningrockwv.com.

NEW RIVER GORGE COUNTRY: Fayette County

Home to the New River Gorge National River, Fayette County is full of amazing outdoor recreation. Pair that with rich history and a thriving dining scene and you've got a vacation to remember.

New River Gorge Adventures

Fayette County features the New River Gorge National River. Non-stop play awaits when you spend part of your vacation in the Gorge!

New River

WHITewater RAFTING

In summer, the Lower New River is prime rafting territory. Class III-V rapids await along this stretch of water as the river narrows and makes its steep descent into the Gorge. A trip down the Lower New River is perfect for everyone—a great adventure for a first-time rafter and exciting enough to thrill a seasoned whitewater enthusiast!

ROCK CLIMBING

Rock climbing is a challenging sport, but the good news is that you don't have to be an expert to go climbing here! A guided rock climbing trip with expert instructors is perfect for beginners. You'll learn the basics of top rope climbing and rappelling on world-class climbing routes. See Southern West Virginia from new heights when you climb our massive sandstone cliffs!

Endless Wall

HIKING

The New River Gorge National River also boasts some amazing hiking trails. For scenic views, hike the Endless Wall Trail, chosen as the Best National Park Hike by USA Today in 2015, or Long Point Trail, featuring a stunning view of the New River Gorge Bridge at the end. For a look into the rich coal history of our region, check out the old Nuttall coal mine on the Headhouse Trail. The Kaymoor Trail passes through the Kaymoor historic coal mine site. Take the stairs (821 to be exact!) on the Kaymoor Miners Trail to see more historic buildings from the Kaymoor coal mine.

UNIQUE ADVENTURES

Ready for more? Take a Bridge Walk tour! Walk the catwalk of the New River Gorge Bridge, the longest steel arch bridge in the Western Hemisphere. Or, ride in a World War II biplane and take in the views from the sky with Wild Blue Adventure Company. 🐦

Wood Iron Eatery
Fayetteville

A Foodie's Paradise

Talk to any local, and they'll tell you their favorite place to eat.

DOWNTOWN FAYETTEVILLE is a hub for excellent cuisine in Southern West Virginia. And sometimes, the spaces are just as unique as the food! From creative takes on classics to meals served fresh from local farms, you're sure to find your new favorite here.

For breakfast or brunch, head to Cathedral Cafe for fresh spins on classic dishes. This quaint cafe is housed in a former church and features specials like Sweet Potato Pancakes and Smoked Salmon or Dill Scrambled Eggs. If you want something lighter, visit Raw 'n Juicy Juice Bar in the loft for smoothies and juices. If it's caffeine you're craving, visit Wood Iron Eatery for a delicious latte. While you're there, try the AM Handheld, a breakfast sandwich you'll never forget, or a fluffy waffle, topped with something sweet or savory.

For lunch or dinner, try Secret Sandwich Society! This Fayetteville staple serves up creative sandwiches, salads and soups. For some of the best pizza around, look no further than Pies & Pints. This pizza joint doesn't just serve up classics like cheese and pepperoni—try the Grape and Gorgonzola or Cuban Pork for a unique experience.

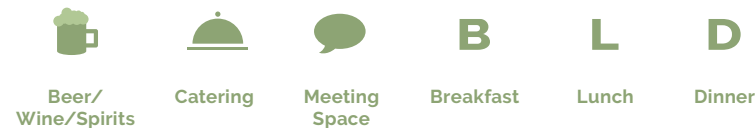

Fayetteville is also known for its fresh food sourced from local farms. For some of the best farm-to-table cuisine, visit The Station. This restaurant features locally sourced ingredients and a seasonal menu so they're always serving the freshest meals. And no matter where you choose to dine, wash it all down with a West Virginia-made craft beer at Bridge Brew Works, for a match made in almost heaven. For even more amazing food options, venture outside of Fayetteville and explore everything else the county has to offer. From Mexican fare in Oak Hill to fine dining in Lansing, Fayette County has something for everyone. 🍷

THE LAKE DISTRICT: Nicholas County

Miles of shoreline, world-renowned whitewater adventures and festivals honoring everything from civil war heritage to the wild ramp onion, Nicholas County is a year-round destination.

Summersville Lake

Battle Run
Campground

A West Virginia Oasis: Summersville Lake

OVER 28,000 ACRES OF WATER, 60 miles of shoreline and some of the clearest freshwater east of the Mississippi—Summersville Lake is known for its unique cliff-lined shore and beautiful coves.

The lake becomes a mecca for everyone looking to beat the heat in the summer. From lounging on a pontoon boat, floating on a paddleboard or flying by on a jet ski, Summersville has plenty of recreation options for those who want to enjoy lake life.

Want to hit the water but don't have the right gear or equipment? Go to visitwv.com for more information on where to rent paddleboards, kayaks, boats and jet skis.

Each fall, the lake's water levels are dropped for the winter through dam releases into the Gauley River. While it might mark the start of a quieter season on Summersville Lake, it also marks the start of Gauley Season!

Officially named West Virginia's "fifth season", whitewater enthusiasts come from around the world to tackle the Gauley River rapids. Known as the "Beast of the East," the Gauley River offers up an epic adventure with a mix of class II-V rapids. Whether you are looking for a whiteknuckle rafting experience or a little calmer adventure, the Gauley River has the perfect option for you. 🌿

You can also take your adventure underwater! Rent SCUBA diving and snorkeling gear from Sarge's Dive Shop to enjoy crystal clear waters that allow you to see underwater caverns and rock formations.

To get a birds' eye view of the lake, visit the Summersville Lake Lighthouse. Located on the Mt. Nebo side of the lake, the lighthouse stands at 104-feet-tall and offers panorama views of Summersville Lake and surrounding areas.

A SECLUDED ADVENTURE: Wyoming County

Wyoming County is known for its coal mining heritage, but it's hard to miss the natural beauty and outdoor adventure in this corner of Southern West Virginia.

Twin Falls State Park
Mullens

Explore the Outdoors

IN WYOMING COUNTY

Wyoming County is an outdoor enthusiast's dream. Whether you're looking to relax while surrounded by nature or hit the trails in search of adventure, you'll find it here.

DISCONNECT AND UNWIND at Twin Falls Resort State Park. This state park is a hidden treasure in our rugged mountains, offering an 18-hole golf course, meeting facilities, restaurants, lodging, outdoor recreation and more. You can also take a step back in time at the Pioneer Farm, a living history farm from the 1830s. Take a hike on one of 12 trails and view the scenic Twin Falls that give the park its name. Cozy up in a cabin, or stay in a room at the lodge. The Twin Falls Restaurant serves up seasonal meals, including some Appalachian favorites.

Off-road enthusiasts will also find something exciting in Wyoming County. The Hatfield-McCoy Trail's Pinnacle Creek Trail System, which totals nearly 80 miles of off-road territory, is located here and is known as the most scenic trail system on the Hatfield-McCoy Trails. Get muddy on an ATV, UTV or a dirt bike and take in mountain vistas! The trails are open year-round, so no matter when you choose to vacation, you'll find adventure on the Hatfield-McCoy Trails. 🌲

WHERE THREE RIVERS MEET: Summers County

In Summers County, you'll find charming small towns, the largest waterfall on the New River, rich railroad history—and so much more.

Downtown Hinton

Downtown
Hinton

A Revitalized Railroad Town

Hinton is a quiet town with plenty to be discovered.

Nestled on the banks of the New River, this town is the county seat of Summers County and was once a booming railroad hub for the coal industry. Visit the Hinton Railroad Museum to learn about the impact of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad Company and the railroad boom that put Hinton on the map.

Recently, Hinton has undergone many revitalization projects. From historic building renovations to new businesses setting up shop, Hinton has taken its history into the modern age. To truly experience this town, you must visit the historic district. At 16 square blocks, it's one of the largest in the country. It's also home to outdoor adventure. Sandstone Falls, the largest waterfall on the New River, is just a short drive from Hinton's historic district.

Learn more about Hinton's railroad history at Hinton Railroad Days in October, or simply stroll down the streets of this newly revitalized community to explore just what makes this town special. 🍂

UNTOUCHED FARMLAND: Monroe County

Monroe County is a quiet corner of West Virginia that seems unchanged by time. Peaceful and idyllic, it abounds with mountain trails, forests and pastures.

The Monroe County Quilt Trail

THE STORY OF MONROE COUNTY IS STITCHED, quite literally, into the surrounding farmland. Around here, barns are known for their vivid, intricate “quilt blocks.” Since 2011, Monroe County has recognized more than 50 distinctive patterns. Travel the Rural Heritage Quilt Trail and find your favorite! Find a detailed map at monroewvquilttrail.com, and check out these popular stops:

1. Stars and Bars
2. Americana Star
3. Oak Leaf
4. Dresden Plate
5. Farmer's Fancy
6. Honey Bee

Monroe County's History

FORMED IN 1799 and named after Virginia Governor James Monroe, Monroe County is full of rich history. The basis for Monroe County's economy has almost always been farming and timber harvesting, but in 1790, water became an economic driver for the county. Water-powered mills were placed on streams, and summer resorts were created around the area's mineral springs. Soon, technology advanced, and water power was no longer the leading source of energy for communities. When railroad construction began after the Civil War, Monroe County was bypassed, preserving its pastoral scenery.

Today, Monroe's historic features are well-preserved. Visit quaint towns like Alderson and Union, see Cook's Old Mill (one of the water-powered mills) and drive the Farm Heritage Road to explore the countryside of one of Southern West Virginia's most peaceful areas. 🌿

COAL COUNTRY: McDowell County

Named after Governor James McDowell in 1858, McDowell County is located deep in the heart of coal country and was the largest coal producing county in the world for many years. Today, visit McDowell County to retrace steps of West Virginia history, including its present day claim to fame, the setting of the movie "October Sky". McDowell County is also known as the setting of the 2017 movie "The Glass Castle" which focuses on life in rural West Virginia.

Whimsical West Virginia Weddings

Breathtaking overlooks, awe-inspiring vistas and one-of-a-kind reception venues make Southern West Virginia the perfect place for the perfect wedding day.

Adventures on the Gorge
Fayette County

Looking for an amazing outdoor location for your West Virginia wedding? Southern West Virginia has plenty of options. You couldn't ask for a more beautiful backdrop to share your "I Dos" than Grandview Overlook or Serenity Point on Summersville Lake.

Want to keep your wedding indoors? There are a number of churches, resorts, reception halls and cabins that are perfect wedding venues. Rustic, modern, traditional or themed—many wedding venues in the area can help you plan your day down to the last detail.

365 Days of Adventure

One of the greatest things about Southern West Virginia is that it doesn't matter what time of year you visit—there's amazing things to see and do year-round! Whether you want to explore the great outdoors in every season or if you prefer to head indoors when the temperature drops, there's something for everyone.

Sandstone Falls
Raleigh County

SPRING

While each season is beautiful in its own way, spring in Southern West Virginia is truly remarkable. With the rhododendron and mountain laurel in bloom, the hillsides are lit up with beautiful colors.

Take a drive through the mountains and keep an eye out for waterfalls sprouting up as the snow melts. Southern West Virginia is filled with some of the most beautiful waterfalls in the state. Cathedral Falls is easily accessible in Gauley Bridge and flows more than 100 feet down a steep mountain canyon. Sandstone Falls stretches 1,500 feet across the New River and can be viewed at an aerial vista along Route 20 or use the boardwalk to get a close-up look at the falls. Black Fork Falls, located in Twin Falls State Park, is a seasonal waterfall that dries up in the summer. Hike up to the falls and even walk behind the falls if you're feeling adventurous!

Summersville Lake
Nicholas County

SUMMER

When the temperatures begin to rise, Southern West Virginia has plenty of places to help you beat the heat. Take the family to the Lake Stephens Sprinkler Splash Pad and Aqua Water Park or stop by the Wonderland Waterpark at ACE Adventure Resort. With inflatable mountains, a lake, zip line and the infamous BLOB, there are plenty of ways to cool off in the summer months.

For a more relaxing experience, rent paddleboards and explore the coves around Summersville Lake or kick back on the beach with a good book. End your day with some live music at one of the many festivals that run throughout the summer!

FALL

Nothing compares to a crisp fall day in Southern West Virginia. With the hillsides filled with hues of red, orange and yellow, the scenery is second-to-none. Fall is the perfect time to visit state parks and overlooks to take in the sights and sounds.

After taking in the fall colors, be sure to check out some of the great festivals in the area! The Country Roads Festival at Hawks Nest State Park and Chili Night in Beckley have live music and fun for the whole family. Also, don't miss Bridge Day—this year marks the 40th anniversary of the largest extreme sports event of its kind in the world! Watch BASE jumpers leap off the bridge or watch them land below from the Fayette Station viewing area.

Wild Blue Adventure Company
Fayette County

Winterplace
Ski Resort
Raleigh County

WINTER

Even with snow on the ground and a chill in the air, there are still plenty of things to do in Southern West Virginia in the winter.

Winterplace Ski Resort is the most easily accessible resort in the Southeast and is filled with fun snow adventures. With more than 90 acres of skiable terrain, Winterplace has 27 trails—perfectly mixed for beginners, intermediate and advanced skiers and snowboarders. Hit the ski slopes or check out the tubing park—the largest park in the region. The tubing park is open late so you can fly down the mountain even after the sun goes down!

Winter is also the perfect time to take a hike. Take in the beautiful snow-covered mountains and cliffs of Southern West Virginia by hitting the trails. For more winter beauty, take another drive to the local waterfalls. As the temperatures drop, the waterfalls are known to partially or fully freeze over—and it's a site that you won't want to miss!

Want to stay indoors and avoid the cold? Then visit some of the local museums and quaint downtown boutiques for an enjoyable winter getaway. 🍷

Head of the Dragon Motorcycle Ride

McDowell County

Every year, hundreds of motorcycle riders descend on McDowell County to tackle the Head of the Dragon—a motorcycle ride that winds through 91 miles of mountain roads. The route takes riders through Welch, War, Keystone and a number of other small West Virginia towns. The Head of the Dragon also links up to other notable "dragon" routes like Claw of the Dragon and the infamous Tail of the Dragon in the Great Smoky Mountains. Riders who complete all dragon motorcycle routes attain "Dragon Master" status.

Enjoy Your Stay

Welcome to our slice of the Mountain State.

Whether you're planning a relaxing getaway, a non-stop adventure, or want to explore in a little of both, you'll find the perfect combination of activities during your Southern West Virginia vacation.

Pinnacle Rock
Mercer County

By this point, you've probably gathered that Southern West Virginia has lots of variety. That's what you get with 9 counties! You'll find something for every traveler and every season here. It's also authentic. Sheltered by mountains, our region's pioneer heritage is an everyday experience. Taste farm-fresh cuisine at a restaurant. Discover our rich history. Listen to traditional music.

Outside-In Climbing Gym
Raleigh County

Or bring home Appalachian charm with something handmade by a Southern West Virginia artisan.

Southern West Virginia also likes to innovate. That's especially true when it comes to cooking. Fresh, imaginative ingredients form the basis for virtually every meal in town—even the humble burger. Outdoor recreation is fair game for creativity, too. From catwalk tours to whitewater surfing, our region always has something unexpected to offer.

And of course, don't forget to take in the natural beauty during your getaway. We hope you've found something in Southern West Virginia that makes you want to stay a little longer.

See you soon! 🍷
